The United States District Court for the District of Hawaii is seeking qualified applicants for the position of Official Court Reporter.

JOB SUMMARY - Essential duties are to attend and record verbatim by shorthand court sessions or other proceedings specified by statute, rule, or order of court; transcribe promptly and accurately proceedings requested by interested parties or as the court may direct; transcribe or provide an electronic sound recording to the court of all arraignments, pleas, and proceedings in connection with the imposition of sentence in criminal cases; promptly certify and file all original transcripts and shorthand notes with the Clerk of Court, and perform other administrative duties as required. Official Court Reporters are employed by and serve at the pleasure of the Court en banc. The court utilizes a "pool" arrangement to support the judges. Official Court Reporters must be able to work well under pressure, produce transcripts within strict time limitations, and work as part of a team of reporters serving the Court. The position may require travel.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS - Four years of prime court reporting experience in the freelance field, court, or a combination thereof, certification as a Registered Professional Reporter (RPR) by test from the National Court Reporters Association (NCRA), or equivalent qualifying examination certificate, and proficiency in computer-aided transcription.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS - Certification by NCRA as a Certified Realtime Reporter (CRR), or equivalent qualifying examination certificate. U.S. District Court reporting experience. Possession of computer-aided transcription software capable of interfacing with CaseView access software utilized by the Court. Ability to report people of varied ethnic backgrounds and limited English-speaking ability.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT - All application information is subject to verification. The court may hire a qualified non-citizen who is lawfully eligible for employment in the United States. The selected candidate will be subject to a background check as a condition of employment and a probationary period of one year. All employees of the Judiciary are "at-will" employees in the excepted service. As such, employment may be terminated by either the employer or employee, with or without cause. Judiciary employees are required to adhere to a Code of Conduct that is available upon request. Electronic Fund Transfer for direct deposit of net pay is mandatory. The court is not authorized to reimburse candidates for travel in connection with an interview or pay for any relocation expenses.

INFORMATION FOR APPLICANTS

SALARY AND TRANSCRIPT RATES* - A 25% Cost of Living Allowance (COLA) is paid in addition to annual salary. The COLA rate is subject to change. Under current law, the COLA portion of an employee's salary is not taxed by the federal government but is taxed by the State of Hawaii. Subject to federal appropriations, federal employees in Hawaii have averaged an annual pay increase of 2% each January. Potential to move up to Level 5 after 10 years of service with the federal court and attainment of realtime and merit reporter certifications. In addition to salary and COLA, court reporters are entitled to be paid the maximum transcript fees allowable by the Judicial Conference of the United States.
